

WOMENS'

MOVEMENT

ARCHIVES

The Women's Movement Archives now has an office. We are located at:

455 Spadina Avenue
Suite 205
Toronto, Ontario

Beginning March 21st we will be open for you to visit. Our hours are:

9am to 5pm Monday to Friday
7pm to 9pm Thursday Evening

The Archives grew out of the Other Woman newspaper that was printed in Toronto from 1972-1977. It has since grown and is part of the womens' liberation movement in Canada. It is ours. It belongs to those women who are working in the: anti-rape, abortion rights, health, labour, lesbian, day care movements and all other struggles which gives us more autonomy over our lives. All our material is accessible and open to all unless donations have specific conditions to be closed to the public.

You can help us increase our holdings by cleaning out your basements, boxes and attics. The Archives will accept photocopies of material. Your correspondence with women active in other cities is also needed. Keep your almanacs and your journals. Nothing which relates to our movement should be thrown away.

It cost money to maintain these materials, please make a financial contribution to help keep our history.

Spread the word about the Archives and send us names of women and groups who can be contacted for material.
