

WOMEN IN THE CITY - AN ELECTORAL FORUM

Is this YOUR city? Here's a chance to join us in shaping a better city for all of us. Come, hear and participate with our panel as we consider how our city affects the quality of life for women today.

Consider all of the areas of our lives which are determined by municipal politicians:

SAFETY OF WOMEN IN THE STREETS

CHILD CARE

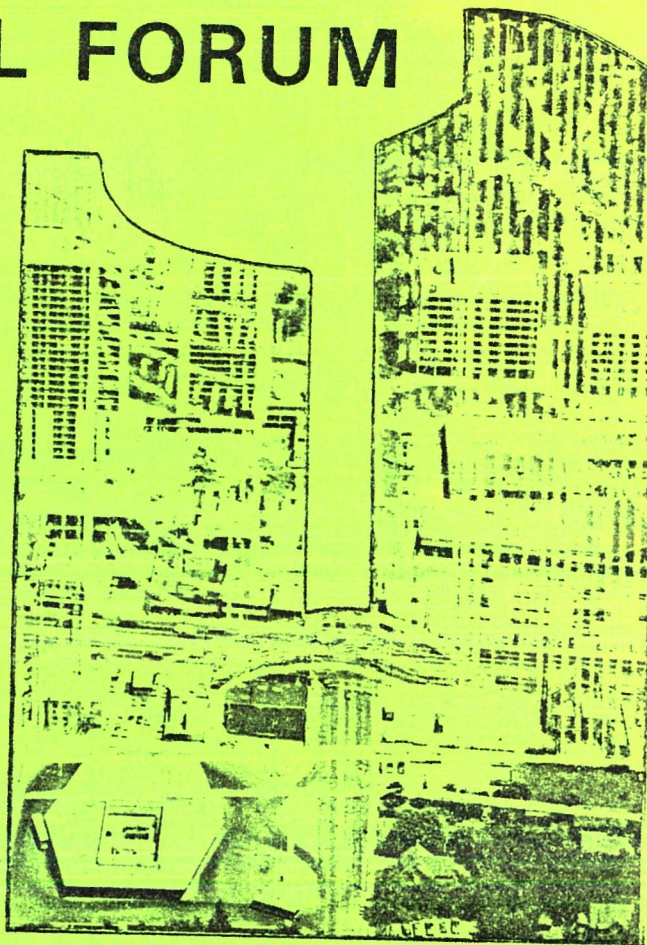

TRANSPORTATION

ACCESS TO SERVICES -- EDUCATION,
HEALTH, HOUSING

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1980, 7.30 p.m.

THE EDUCATION CENTRE, 6th FLOOR CONFERENCE ROOM

155 COLLEGE STREET (at McCaul)

Sponsored by the Feminist Party-Parti Feministe du Canada

Our distinguished panel includes:

Lorenne Clark, Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy and the Centre for Criminology, U. of T. Board of Directors, Rape Crisis Centre. NAC Vice-president.

Fran Endicott, Candidate for School Trustee Ward 7.

Eileen Samuel, activist, founding member Family Benefits Work Group. Musician and composer.

Geraldine Waldman, lawyer.

Gerda Wekerle, Associate Professor Faculty of Environmental Studies, York University. NAC executive member. Board of Directors, Metro Social Planning Council.

Let's Expand Politics to Meet Women's Needs. Join us.

Endorsed by: Ellen Agger (Toronto Women Running), Anduhyaun House, Birth Control and V.D. Centre, Broadside, Canadian Learning Opportunities for Women, Conscious Childbirth Association Dorothy Gillmeister (Equal Opportunity Officer, U. of T.), Housewives Initiative, Julie Mathien (Action Daycare), National Action Committee on the Status of Women, Nellies, Ryva Novack (Children's Storefront), Maria Ociepka (Family Benefits Work Group), Parents and Infants Resources Services, Support Services for Assaulted Women, THEOS, Toronto Women's Bookstore, Umbrella Central Day Care Services, Wages for Housework Committee, Women's Counselling Referral and Education Centre (WREC), Women's Educational Press, Women for Political Action.

For further information please call The Feminist Party Office at 960 3427.

THE FEMINIST PARTY OF CANADA-PARTI FEMINISTE DU CANADA BOX 5715 STATION A TORONTO M5W 1A0