

RADIO FEMINIST

INTERNATIONAL

29 hours of community programming
celebrating International Women's Day 1989

Tune in from 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, March 7
to midnight Wednesday, March 8

The sounds of activist women in Toronto's Black, Filipino, South African, Chinese,
Native and Latin American, South African and Palestinian communities

Join the live celebration at THE RIVOLI
Wednesday, March 8

Doors open 8:00 p.m. $3-5 cover

ALL WOMEN WELCOME

Produced by the CKLN Women's Caucus

Illustration: Detail from 'Women's Work' by Grace Channer

CKLN
88.1FM

RADIO FEMINIST INTERNATIONAL

Tuesday March 7th - the warm up

7pm - 8pm-Pink Antennae

Dykes behind the mike with part 2 of the annual lesbian sap opera and coming out stories

8pm - 9pm-Sweet Patootie

Wild women's blues and young women's rap with host Mary Millen, Tissa Farrell and Jodie Drake

9pm - 10pm-Women's Musical Currents

Celeste Whittaker and Philly Markowitz spin the most recent releases by women from around the world

10pm - 11pm-Underground Sound

Alternative - unusual musical works by women selected by Sandra Dawson

11pm -12 pm-Rhythmic Resistance

Guest Deejays Leslie Ramsay Taylor and Leleti bring in a new community flavour to rev us up for midnight.

Wednesday March 8th

Midnight - 1am-It's International Women's Day!

Kick off the big day with members of the CKLN Women's Caucus, a history of IWD, a live link with women from our sister station in Vancouver and more music.

1am - 3am-What is Feminist Music?

Denise Benson takes us through the variety of answers to this question along with interviews with local musicians.

3am - 5am-Town and Country Women

Joanna Kidd and Basia Urbanczyk team up for two hours of women's music ranging from the urbane to the rural.

5am - 6am-Soundwomen

The sound women collective takes us through the wee hours with a collection of their best.

6am - 7am-Emerging in Time

Wende Bartley airs the work of new women composers and performers in a counter classical vein to help you surface for IWD morning.

7am - 8am-Inside Women's Jazz

Wake up to the beauty and power of Jazzwomen with Li Robbins.

8am - 8:30am-Sister Africa

Music and rhythm of women in Africa with Guest host Rita Kebaara.

8:30am - 9am-Poetry in Movement

Local women poets read from their works and discuss the implications of their writing in this segment hosted by Philly Markowitz and Pam Godfree.

9am - 10am-Still fighting for our Bodies

Not the Church, not the state, not Ortho, not our mates...the struggle for control over our bodies continues..In this hour..abortion, the struggle ahead, an overview with Healthsharing and violence against women a panel discussion.

10am - Noon-Poverty is not a Theory

The experiences women without middle class buffers..in housing, welfare, prison, and with the immigration department. The view from inside produced by women in the community. Listen for an interview with a woman recently released from P4W, a woman working in Canada for ten years now facing deportation, and women organizing in public housing.

Noon - 12:15pm-International/National Report

Telephone links with feminist activists in Asia and Montreal.

12:15pm - 1pm-Images of Change

Arts for those with an eye for social and political change...at Studio D - a fresh start for new filmmakers ...in the visual arts with Grace Channer and friends.

1pm - 1:15pm-International/National reports

Phone links with Aboriginal women on Australia and Nitassinan (Labrador)

1:15pm - 2pm-Singing for our Lives

Vocal traditions of women under oppression with Brenna McCrimmon.

2pm - 7pm-We Stand By Who We Are

Women from communities outside of the assumed mainstream take air time with political, cultural and musical expressions of feminist organizing from our varied points of view. The schedule is as follows:

2pm - 3 pm-Native Women

Host: Viola Thomas of ANDPVA - (Nt'l org. for native arts)

3pm-4 pm-Latin American Women

Host: Kaushalya Bannerji with featured guests.

4pm - 4:30pm-Chinese Women

Host: May Yee CCNC women's caucus

4:30pm - 5:30pm-South Asian Women

Hosts: Himani Bannerji and Pramila Aggarwal

5:30pm - 6 pm-Filipino Women

Hosts: Nadine Cusipag and Christine De Leon

6pm - 7pm-Black Women

Hosts: Carol Camper & other members of the Toronto Black Women's Collective

7pm - 7:15pm-International/National reports

Phone links with Irish women and Edmonton

7:15pm - 8pm

Progress on Racism? - The Women's Press Debate

Members of the Women's Press collective and authors Dionne Brand & Himani Bannerji review the politics and progress of last year's very public debate over racism inside Canada's oldest feminist publishing house. Join this live discussion by calling in with your comments...Is the struggle over? Where has it left the movement and the Press?

8pm - 8:30pm-Toronto Talent

Women's resistance music in our own community with host Mary Millen

8:30pm - 9pm-Women and Liberation - South Africa

Nompi Mahlarger and members of the ANC women's section air poetry, music and interview from Radio Freedom visiting Canada in March.

9pm - 9:30pm-Women and Liberation - Palestine

Nahala Abdo of the University of Toronto Middle East Group reviews the role of women in the "intifadeh" and features of a life in exile from one's homeland.

9:30pm - 10 pm-Multicultural Women on Air

Eun-sook Lee "Unions are banned. Most of the workers that are getting the menial jobs with low pay is the Korean Woman."

10pm - Midnight-Radio Feminist International Finale

Featuring: Thando, Holly Cole, Nesis of the Four Directions, The Heratix and others.....

Join us live at The Rivoli...