Dear Sir:

Our office has been retained by twenty-three East Indian women wrongfully dismissed from their employment at Canadian Pizza Crust Company Ltd. on October 7, 1982.

With respect to this matter, please find enclosed a copy of a letter from Parkdale Community Legal Services to the Canadian Pizza Crust Co. Ltd. setting out the position of our clients and the remedies to which we feel they are entitled. Also enclosed is a brief synopsis of the relevant events as prepared by the women.

It is our understanding that you have appointed Mr. H. Sparling to look into this matter. It is our further understanding that Mr. Sparling has arranged to meet with the Company's legal representative to discuss this issue. We feel that in order to apprise Mr. Sparling of both sides of this matter, the writer should be afforded the opportunity to attend at the meeting between Mr. Sparling and the Company's legal representative.

Please do not hesitate to contact the writer regarding this matter.

Sincerely,
