

DEDICATION

Fran Soboda

SOBODA.

Believes firmly that teamwork and strong democratic leadership will keep the Canadian Labour Congress in the forefront of trade union representation. Soboda has spent her entire adult life as a dedicated trade unionist, as a local union officer and steward, as an educator, speaking out on women's issues, and as an activist in Labour Councils, the Nova Scotia Federation of Labour and the C.L.C.

DEDICATION.

Fran Soboda has been President of Local 4253 USWA for the past 10 years. She is a 1975 graduate of the Canadian Labour College. She is a past President of the New Glasgow and District Labour Council, and a Vice President of the Nova Scotia Federation of Labour. She was first elected C.L.C. Vice-President-at Large in 1984.

EDUCATION.

Fran Soboda has earned a reputation as a dedicated and competent union educator. She is in demand by her union, the CLC and other labour organizations across Canada to help spread the good word of trade unionism.

WOMEN'S ISSUES.

Fran Soboda has spoken out firmly and intelligently on the many issues confronting women in the workplace and in society. And she backs up her rhetoric with solid action. She has also chaired the Committee on Human Rights of the Nova Scotia Federation of Labour for the past 10 years.

INVOLVEMENT.

Fran Soboda believes that union involvement also means taking part in all issues that affect workers. She was a member of the Advisory Committee on the National Economic Summit Conference in 1984-85 and in 1985-86, sat as a member of the Forget Commission on Unemployment Insurance. From 1983, she has been a member of the planning committee of the Governor General's Study Conference and as a past member of the Duke of Edinburgh Study Conference.

Dedication, involvement, competence and articulate representation of workers and women's issues, that's what Fran Soboda has to offer.

TO KEEP US MOVING AHEAD.

Fran Soboda
Vice-President at Large

