

THIRD INTERNATIONAL FEMINIST BOOK FAIR

TO BE HELD IN MONTREAL

JUNE 14 - 21, 1988

June 14, 1987

Every two years, since 1984, women involved in feminist publishing meet at an International Feminist Book Fair. The first fair was held in London in 1984, the second in Oslo in 1986, and the third is being planned for June, 1988 in Montreal. Bringing together editors of books, magazines and newspapers with writers, translators, distributors and booksellers from around the world, the International Feminist Book Fair provides a unique forum for feminists to network and discover each other's work at the same time as making feminist authors known to a wider audience. The event permits an exchange across continents, languages and disciplines.

The Third Fair remains committed to the international character of the previous fairs, reflecting the plurality of women's experience from various cultural and economic backgrounds. As this is the first time it will be held on the American continent, a special invitation is extended to women from Latin America. The two official languages will be French and English but we hope to have some events in Spanish. We are committed to facilitating fruitful and thought-provoking exchanges amongst feminists and lesbians through the conferences, readings, and panels that will be held during the week. We wish to provide a forum in which a diversity of voices can be heard, especially those which are so often censored elsewhere.
