FACES OF FEMINISM

by Pamela Harris

Pamela Harris has researched and photographed the Canadian women's movement for many years. A show of her work has toured the country to rave reviews. Now her empowering collection of eighty black and white portraits, each paired with a text written by the woman or group portrayed, is being published this fall.

WHAT YOU SEE

DRAWINGS BY GAIL GELTNER

Introduction by Linda Hutcheon

Since the 1970s Geltner has been a strong graphic voice coming from the women's movement. She has used her sharp-witted pen and ink drawings in such venues as The New York Times, Canadian Women's Studies, The Village Voice, Ms, and Toronto Life to comment on a wide spectrum of issues and experiences. Now, for the first time, eighty of her best images are being published in a collection.

THE WOMEN'S DAYBOOK 1993

FEATURING PHOTOGRAPHS BY WOMEN

ON THE THEME WOMEN AND ENVIRONMENT

Introduction by Dr. Rosalie Bertell, environmental activist and scientist

Each month of this elegant and useful, spiral bound datebook, is introduced with a photograph focusing on the theme of "women and environment" with accompanying text from the artist. Last year the book was so in demand that the 1992 edition sold out before December 1991! A wonderful success for Canadian women photographers.
