Media Release

The Congress of Black Women of Canada - Toronto Chapter presents

at the Poor Alex Theatre located at 296 Brunswick Avenue Sunday August 11, 1996, at 8:00p.m.

You must attend this hilarious event with "Toronto's Finest Black Comediennes" of Yuk Yuk's Superclub fame: Marcia Johnson, whose credits also include Second City and warm-up comedian for "Ed's Night Party" on Citytv; Tricia Williams, who had appeared in "The March of Dames Comedy Festival" and was last seen performing in her one woman comedy "You're the Best...Really"; Satori Shakoor, who has opened for Joan Rivers and whose "natural, destined for stardom" comedy brought her the title #2 comedian in Now Magazine's Best of 1995 issue; and featuring the celebrated Taryn Della, a Black Aboriginal activist regularly performing on the Yuk Yuk's "All Black Comedy of the Nubian Disciples of Pryor" bill, and who delivers biting race and gender political humour the excalibur says "...leaves a lasting impression..."

Tickets are $10.00 and are available in advance at A Different Booklist, 746 Bathurst Street (538-0889), Toronto Women's Bookstore, 73 Harbord Street (922-8744), or by calling the Congress of Black Women of Canada - Toronto Chapter at 961-2427.

"Patron" seating tickets at $15.00, and available only by calling the Toronto Chapter, provides reserved front row seating and a listing in a special program insert available on the evening.

This event is wheelchair accessible, and there is public parking one (1) block west of the venue. A cash bar will be available. Draw prizes have been provided by Mobay Caribbean Cuisine, Bailey Communications, distributor of Black books, and others.

Please copy, post and distribute the attached flyer, and include the information in your community listing.

This event has been organized by the Congress of Black Women of Canada - Toronto Chapter Fundraising Committee. For more information please contact:
