

We are women in black.

On International Women's Day we are joining women in Israel and around the world protesting against the occupation of the West Bank and Gaza.

Join us on March 8, at 5:30, southeast corner of Spadina and Bloor, across from the Jewish Community Centre.

We stand in solidarity with Jewish and Palestinian women in Israel and elsewhere working for peace in the Middle East.

We stand in support of two states, Israel and Palestine, living side by side in peace and security.

We stand in protest against the continuing violence of the Israeli occupation of the Palestinian people.

We stand in mourning for: those who have died; those who have lost their homes and their families; those who have been imprisoned and tortured.

Join us on March 8, at 5:30, at the southeast corner of Spadina and Bloor, across from the Jewish Community Centre.

Please try to wear black; placards will be provided.

We will also be holding regular biweekly vigils every second Thursday beginning March 22 at the Israeli consulate, 180 Bloor St. West.

Sponsored by the Jewish Women's Committee to end the occupation in the West Bank and Gaza (Toronto) and Jews for a Just Peace.
